Worship in the Meetinghouse Sanctuary and Online

The sun rose at 6:40am and will set at 6:30pm in sh'allah bringing us 11 hours, 51 minutes of sunlight,
20 minutes less than last Sunday.

The moon is waning toward a new moon on Wednesday.

The Jewish High Holidays begin Wednesday at sunset with Rosh Hashanah.

Rosh Hashanah, the beginning of the Jewish New Year, is the first of the Ten Days of Awe that conclude on Yom Kippur

October 1st marks the beginning of LGBTQ History Month.

Sounding of the Chime

*In the sanctuary silence during the prelude is appreciated.
Please also silence your cell phones and electronic devices.*

Hymn 159

This Is My Song

Time for All Ages

Rev. Stevie Carmody,
Minister of Religious Education

As children leave for religious education we sing:

Go now in peace, go now in peace.
May the spirit of love surround you everywhere, everywhere you may go.

Vayan en paz, vayan en paz
Pueda el amor rodear los siempre
por doquier, por doquier que vayan.

Go Now in Peace -- Vayan en paz

Trans. Rev. Lilia Cuervo

Natalie Sleeth

The musical score is written in 4/4 time on a single staff. It begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The melody consists of eighth and quarter notes. The lyrics are written below the staff, with some words split across lines. The score ends with a double bar line.

Go now in peace, Go now in peace. May the spi - rit of Va - yan en paz, va-yan en paz, Pue - da el a - mor ro-de -

4
love sur - round you ev-'ry where, ev-'ry-where, you may go.
ar - los si - em - pre por do-quier, por do-quier, que va - yan.

Congregational response:

Worship is where we gather, celebrate and mourn.
Together we sing and pray,
 laugh and cry, learn and wonder.
Today we welcome as new Worship Associates.
 Mary Breen and Lillian Povey.
We will speak with you of our hopes and we will support your giving voice
 to our longings, faith and mission.

Mary Breen and Lillian Povey join Loren Gomez, Bill Licea-Kane and David Whitford
as Worship Associates.
We give thanks to
Elizabeth Hunter and Ruben Hopwood who today complete their terms as Worship Associates.

Celebrations and Concerns

Steve McMullin
Lay Minister

If moved to do so, you may place a stone
for a joy or sorrow you are holding in your heart.
If you write a joy or sorrow on the card available
 at the back of the sanctuary,
 the ordained and lay ministers will hold it
 in their thoughts and prayers.
If you wish to speak of your joy or sorrow,
 please line up after placing your stone.
 When you are motioned forward,
speak into the microphone and tell us your name.
Speak briefly and from your own experience.

Musical Response

Amen, Blessed Be
Kenneth Seitz, piano

Words: Amen, Blessed Be. Shalom, Salaam.
Sung twice by the congregation

Amen, Blessed Be, Shalom, Salaam

Kenneth H. Seitz

The musical notation is written on two staves in 3/4 time, with a key signature of three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat). The melody is simple and melodic, with lyrics written below the notes.

A-men, Bles-sed Be, Sha - lom, Sa - laam..

A - men, Bles-sed Be, Sha - lom, Sa - laam.

Rev. Stevie Carmody*

Hymn 126

Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing

Benediction

Rev. Stevie Carmody

May faith in the Spirit of Life,
Hope for the community of Earth,
and Love of the sacred in one another
Be ours now and in all the days to come.

Saying these words responsively is a custom at First Parish. You are invited to take the hand of one beside you or place your hand on their shoulder.

Postlude

The Teddy Bears' Picnic (part II)

John Bratton

Kenneth Seitz, piano

*Our postlude is the concluding passage of our common worship.
All are asked to remain seated during the postlude.*

After worship those in the sanctuary are invited to move into the vestry for light refreshments and conversation.

If it is 11:30 parents are asked to quietly leave to pick up their children from the religious education program.

You Sing My Hymn, I Sing Yours

Welcome to worship at First Parish- whatever your story, wherever you are on your journey.

In worship we seek both affirmation and challenge, for these are necessary ingredients for spiritual growth and deepening.

We come with different theological and religious orientations, but we do not seek sameness or some common denominator. We engage in worship with open hearts and minds. Our sung and spoken words reflect a range of religious perspectives.

In worship, some elements will touch us deeply, and some will not. Whatever our personal preferences about the elements in any worship service, we say, You sing my hymn, I sing yours. In worship we give and receive.

First Parish's Mission

First Parish is committed to inward spiritual growth, side by side companionship of one another, and turning outward in our work in the world.

We choose to be a liberal religious community,
welcoming to all.

We encourage each other on our spiritual journeys,
Support one another through the changes in our lives,
And challenge the excesses and injustices of our time.
Called to love and upheld by joy, we live our faith.

First Parish Unitarian Universalist of Arlington

www.firstparish.info

First Parish is a liberal religious community working toward another way to be and act in our time. As a Unitarian Universalist congregation (www.uua.org), we are not bound to any statement of belief or creed but to an aspiration to act in love. We believe personal experience, conscience and reason are final authorities in religion.

A religious education program for children meets during Sunday worship. Children are given the tools with which to answer their religious questions of the world.

To learn more, visit the information table after worship. You can sign up for the weekly E-Bulletin there or by emailing churchoffice@firstparish.info

First Parish is self governing and supported by members and friends who contribute their time, talent and treasure. The elected Parish Committee (“ParCom”) is the governing board. ParCom can be reached at Parishexec@firstparish.info.
